

Food Landscapes 2014 Wall Calendar: A Year of Scrumptious Scenes

Calendar is a fascinating, beautiful, and seasonal collection of 12 servings of beautifully crafted and tasty images, including a fast-moving river made of salami, a balloon race constructed of everything but the kitchen sink, and a celery forest that really is "green." These fantastic images, composed of a symphony of foods and assembled, styled, and photographed to fool the eye, are instantly recognizable from Carl Warner's best-selling books. His palate-pleasing craftsmanship of delightful and deliciously detailed landscapes is perfect for any household! Ideal for any kitchen or cubicle, the Food Landscapes 2014 Wall Calendar is low-calorie escapism!

Fortunately for his kingdom his young queen, Bywyd was as sharp as he was dull. She advised him in all matters of state, and benevolently attended concerned citizens and visiting dignitaries alike, always with a graceful nod to her husband and a quiet "May it please your Majesty." So it was that they ruled in peace for many years troubled only by the lack of Ysbryd-ane an heir to carry on the divine dragon blood of Gwirions ancestors. When Bywyd found herself full with child at last she rejoiced that their kingdom would be secured, their rule assuredly peaceful for the rest of their lives. And when the child was born, with raven black hair so dark against eyes as blue as lightning and skin as pale as snow, they called her Eirwyn and raised her to understand the five aspects of the dragon that she must must ever personify to rule her people. Before her sixth birthday, Eirwyn was already tired of the dusty words she had learned by rote.
