

Holiday Justice (The Justice Team Novella 2.5)

When the wrong Santa comes down your chimney! All Justice Grey Greystone wants for the holidays is a juicy rib eye dinner with his girlfriend Sydney Banfield. Well, that, and the 12 Days or nights, in this case of Christmas Syd has promised him. When his Justice Team partners, Mitch Monroe and Caroline Foster, discover a Santa sneaking around behind the restaurant, Grey and Mitch uncover a theft ring that's leaving kids without toys and families without a reason to celebrate. But taking down the Santas could put Grey in hot water especially if it ruins Christmas at Sydney's shelter for battered women and children. Can Grey pull off the ultimate sting operation and save Christmas for Sydney and the shelter's residents? Or will giving the bad guys a dose of holiday justice leave him with nothing but coal in his stocking?

Fortunately for his kingdom his young queen, Bywyd was as sharp as he was dull. She advised him in all matters of state, and benevolently attended concerned citizens and visiting dignitaries alike, always with a graceful nod to her husband and a quiet "May it please your Majesty." So it was that they ruled in peace for many years troubled only by the lack of Ysbryd-ane an heir to carry on the divine dragon blood of Gwirions ancestors. When Bywyd found herself full with child at last she rejoiced that their kingdom would be secured, their rule assuredly peaceful for the rest of their lives. And when the child was born, with raven black hair so dark against eyes as blue as lightning and skin as pale as snow, they called her Eirwyn and raised her to understand the five aspects of the dragon that she must ever personify to rule her people. Before her sixth birthday, Eirwyn was already tired of the dusty words she had learned by rote.
